Edward B. Gunter

The body of Private Edward B. Gunter, Company A, 110th machine gun battalion has arrived from France and was laid to rest in the family burying ground at the home of his father near Vera.

Private Gunter was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gunter, of this county, and enterred the service in 1918. He trained at Camp Lee, left for overseas in July 1918, was wounded Sept. 25 in the Meuse Argonne offensive and died October 17.

The funeral was held from the home of his parents, Rev G. L. Gordon conducting the burial rites. The pall bearers were four brothers, Wyatt H, of Lynchburg; Sam T., of Roanoke; John W. and Roy W, of Appomattox. The flower bearers were Misses Bessie Gunter, Sallie Thornhill, Addie Childress, and Helen Barlow

In addition to his parents and four brothers the deceased is survived by four sisters all of Appomattox: Mrs Lillian Thornhill, Misses Julia B, Bessie C, and Thelma C Gunter.

Memoriam

Sacred to the memory of my dear father, Samuel Lee Dove, who departed this life January 15, 1916, and my dear brother, Henry Lee Dove, who departed this life December 5, 1918

Beneath the mold within the gates,
Of a city of silent dead,
Lies our loved ones, cold and still
Asleep in a narrow bed.

Farwell dear father and brother, but not forever,
There will be a glorious dawn,
We shall meet to part, no, never,
On the resurrection morn,
Their loving daughter and sister,
EMMA LINAS

To Whom It May Concern

Evergreen

Good bye to car rides, for winter is sure here now.

We are glad to see Mr. J. R Lee out again

Mr and Mrs. Sam Staples have moved to Roanoke

Mrs Jessie Staples and daughters have returned to their home in Lynchburg after a few day's visit to her parents here.

Mr. Everett Ferguson and sister, Miss Odell, were week-end guests of Miss Lillie Harvey.

Miss Lillie Harvey gave a card party Saturday night in honor of her guests, Misses Odell Ferguson, Madlian Lee and Beatrice Inge Quite a large crowd was present, games of all kind were played and fruits served. All report a fine time, hoping Lillie will have another party soon.

Mr. A. J Harvey and daughter, Mrs J. R. Conner, attended the burial of Mr W D Doss at Spout Spring last Thursday.

Miss Lucile Moses attended the marriage of her cousin, Mr Pinnick Harvey to Miss Bertie Woolridge, which took place in Lynchburg Saturday, Jan. 15th. They will make their home at Pamplin. Our best wishes go with them for a long and happy life.

We are glad to see the farmers getting on so well with their new store. Hurry boys for you are the ones that keep the old world going

Although the roads were muddy Sunday we had a fine attendance at the Methodist Sunday School and much credit is due our worthy young superintendent, Mr. Vance Harvey, who living at Pamplin is seldom absent from his post of duty.

Miss Ida Bell Evans entertained a number of her young friends Saturday night in honor of her 13th birthday After much enjoyment refreshments were served and all departed wishing Ida many more happy birthdays

We are sorry to hear of the sad death of Mrs. James Lee which occurred at her home Friday. The family has our deepest sympathy.

Aunt Frances Patterson was found dead in bed Sunday morning, She was a worthy old colored woman and respected by all who knew her.

Mrs. C. T. Taylor, who was called to W. Va, by the serious illness of her sons wife, Mrs. Otto Taylor has returned home

Not only the people in the village, but the entire community is grieved to know that Dr E E. Walker has moved to W. Va. We will miss him so much not only as Dr but as a neighbor and in church. We wish him well
